School is over and for teens looking for summer jobs, it's not difficult because there are numerous opportunities.

Grand Junction Business Times said with the monthly unemployment rate in Mesa County, this is a perfect time for teens to dive into resources and work this summer.

Governor's Summer Job Hunt Program at the Mesa County Workforce Center in Grand Junction is offering all types of jobs for all teens. The organization said teens can work in various fast food restaurants or work for construction contractors and retail stores.

For more information about the Governor's Summer Job Hunt Program call Mesa County Workforce Center at 248-0871 or visit the Colorado Department of Labor and Employment website located at <http://www.coworkforce.com/> and click on the Summer Job Hunt link.
